

Don't Miss This Opportunity Before April 15th

As we approach the April 15th tax deadline, we wanted to send a quick reminder—there's still time to take action and reduce your 2024 tax bill.

Here's what you can still do before the deadline:

- Make a 2024 IRA contribution (Traditional or Roth, depending on eligibility)
- Make SEP IRA or Solo 401(k) contributions if you're a business owner
- Review any missed opportunities for deductions or tax-smart moves

Don't miss this window—contributions made before April 15th could lower your tax liability and grow tax-advantaged for your future.

If you haven't had a chance to review your tax strategy or contribution plan, let's connect. We're happy to run the numbers and help you take full advantage of what's still available.
